With more than 10,300 carefully curated ebooks available anytime and anywhere, ProQuest's Law Ebook Subscription supports the research needs of pre-law majors, law school students and faculty. The collection covers legal topics related to medicine, business, the environment, religion, and other key areas along with general legal reference works. It also includes a complementary selection of titles in history, social science, military science, political science and more.

More than 110 university presses contribute to this subscription including UBC Press, Cornell University Press, Harvard University Press, Amsterdam University Press, Edinburgh University Press, United Nations University Press, and Oxford University Press contribute to the collection. Other notable publishers include Taylor & Francis, the American Bar Association, Greenwood Publishing, Brill Publishers, and National Academies Press.

The subscription includes more than 770 CHOICE and RCL award winning titles. It also includes an increasing selection of Wiley titles only available in subscription through ProQuest including RCL award winner, "Ethics and Law for School Psychologists (2016)," "Hopkins' Nonprofit Law Dictionary (2015)," and "A Companion to European Union Law and International Law (2016)."

All ProQuest subscriptions are delivered on the Ebook Central platform, which offers DRM-free chapter downloads, bookshelves, annotating and other features that enhance the research experience and improve outcomes. ProQuest is also the only ebook provider that offers both session and user-based usage data with Patron Analytics. Subscriptions offer unlimited multi-user access, continue to grow, and are affordably priced based on full-time equivalent (FTE) students. If libraries were to purchase every title in this subscription under a single user perpetual access model it would cost more than $900,000.

These and many other Wiley titles are only available in subscription through ProQuest.

Why do you need ebooks in Law?

Offering journals alone won't give your researchers — or faculty — the support they need. Offer a diverse collection comprised of books and ebooks, along with other resources, to help researchers succeed. According to a 2017 ProQuest survey, nearly 100% of faculty recommend ebooks to their students and almost 80% use ebooks in their research.

Content diversity is critical.

In 2017, ProQuest asked researchers from around the globe what types of resources they use in their research. Two out of three respondents indicated they use every content type with books and ebooks being the most popular.

Our Law Ebook Subscription is one of 10 subject specific collections that can be licensed separately and align with other ProQuest databases.

"Academic Complete helps us to provide more ebooks for undergrads in subject areas in which we might not always choose to purchase ebooks. The interface has always been the simplest to use, and the one that our users seem to like the most. Also, the multiple users for every title is invaluable - we never have to worry about turnaways."
