PREFACE

The Microfilming Corporation of America wishes to thank F. Gerald Ham, Archivist of the State of Wisconsin, and the staff of the Archives Division of The State Historical Society of Wisconsin for their interest and kind assistance in making this microfilm edition of the Papers of the Congress of Racial Equality available to scholars.

BRIEF HISTORY OF CORE

The Congress of Racial Equality had its beginnings in the Fellowship of Reconciliation (FOR), a religious, pacifist organization. In 1941, FOR established a chapter at the University of Chicago. This group was concerned with racial equality and believed Ghandian nonviolent direct action could be used to combat racial discrimination.

In March 1942, the FOR chapter formed a committee to discuss the formation of a civil rights group. In the following month the committee took direct action against the discriminatory policies of Chicago's White City Roller Rink.

In April 1942, the committee formed a permanent interracial group to use nonviolent direct action. In June, this group adopted the name, Committee of Racial Equality (CORE). CORE worked against discrimination in Chicago restaurants through the use of the sit-in, a tactic it pioneered in the civil rights struggle.

CORE-type groups were established in such places as Detroit, New York, and Syracuse. In June 1943, these various groups met in Chicago and formed the National Federation of Committees of Racial Equality. During the year seven groups affiliated with CORE.

During the 1940s CORE (the name Congress of Racial Equality was adopted in 1944) continued to establish local chapters and/or affiliates in the northern and western states. CORE developed an unsalaried national staff headed by Executive Secretary George M. Houser, created an heirarchy of national officers, and formed an advisory committee.

In 1947, CORE carried out its first national project, the Journey of Reconciliation. The project tested discrimination in interstate travel in four states of the upper South. The project resulted in a series of arrests and jail sentences for four participants.

By the 1950s, CORE groups were being established in the South and the border states. The membership of these groups was primarily black. The interracial character of the Northern chapters changed during the 1950s and 1960s, as more blacks than whites joined CORE.

The CORE groups initially directed their activities against discrimination in public accommodations. The emphasis later shifted into the areas of employment and housing.

In 1956, James R. Robinson became executive secretary. Under his direction CORE's staff expanded with the hiring of field representatives and a public relations officer. Robinson, adept at fund raising, was able to substantially increase CORE's financial resources.

In the 1960s, CORE's membership and activities expanded greatly. CORE's income went from $60,000 in 1959 to $900,000 in 1964. In 1964, there were 124 affiliated groups. National CORE's relationship with the affiliates remained one of guidance. Each local group was responsible for its own finances and program. This chapter autonomy often resulted in conflicts between national headquarters and the affiliates. CORE's attempts to exert more control never succeeded.

James L. Farmer was hired as CORE's national director in 1961. The organizational structure of CORE changed over the next few years with new departments and positions being created and staff being added at headquarters and in the field.

CORE received national attention in the 1960s through a series of nationwide projects. CORE organized sit-ins and picketing which desegregated variety store lunch counters in 1960. In 1961, CORE carried through the Freedom Ride, its best known project. This project led to Interstate Commerce Commission rulings which banned discrimination in interstate travel. CORE's Freedom Highways project of 1962 opened Howard Johnson and Holiday Inn facilities to blacks.

CORE's attention shifted increasingly to the South. CORE joined with the Southern Regional Council, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) to register black voters in states such as Louisiana, Mississippi, and Florida.

The 1964 Mississippi Summer Project was a joint effort of CORE, SNCC, and SCLC, which as the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) worked in the areas of voter registration, community centers, and freedom schools. During this project CORE once more became the center of national attention when three CORE workers, Schwerner, Chaney, and Goodman, were murdered in rural Mississippi.

In the North, CORE groups shifted their emphasis from public accommodations. With limited success they worked to end discrimination in housing, employment, and education.

By the mid-1960s the nonviolent tactics and interracial philosophy of CORE were faced with growing opposition. Blacks, particularly in urban areas, were caught up in a militant, nationalistic movement. CORE's staff, officers, and membership were deeply divided by this issue. CORE's official policy had shifted to black separatism by 1966, when several top staff members including James Farmer, George Wiley, James McCain, and Carl Rachlin, resigned. The loss of this experienced leadership seriously weakened CORE for a number of years.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ARRANGEMENT OF THE COLLECTION AND COMPLETE REEL LIST

The papers of the Congress of Racial Equality, 1941-1967, reflect the development of CORE as a local and national organization. In addition, the papers document a facet of the Civil Rights movement and its growth over almost a thirty year period. The papers illustrate the changing patterns of thought and behavior among black and white Americans, as they confront racial discrimination.

Although the papers extend from the years 1941 to 1967, they are primarily from the period 1959 to 1964. The only group of material relating extensively to the years 1941 to 1958 is found in the files of the executive secretary and the National Action Council. The administration of Floyd B. McKissick, who became national director in 1966, is not represented in this collection.

In an attempt to preserve the integrity of the original files, the papers are arranged in series according to the offices and departments by which they were designated when sent to The State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

In each series the files have been arranged alphabetically by subject category; items within each subject file are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day, with undated material placed at the end of all dated material.

For purposes of micropublication, each subject file was assigned an identification number (ie., 1:1, 1:2, etc.), referring to the series and subject file. This identifying number was used on the microfilm to identify the contents of each subject file. In addition, a frame counter was used to facilitate scholarly citation. A complete reel list follows the description of each series, listing each subject file and its inclusive dates.

The researcher should be aware that items were not always filed in a consistent manner by CORE 's clerical staff. For example, the correspondence of an individual may be filed under his/her name, the organization they represented, or the subject discussed in their letter. A file or group of files which would appropriately belong in one series is often found in another series. This is in part due to the fact that staff members changed positions and often carried their old duties and even files into their new position. As a result, it is necessary to check each series and possibly several files in a series to locate materials relative to a particular subject.

Series 1 National Director's File, 1942-1966

SERIES 1 NATIONAL DIRECTOR'S FILE, 1942 - 1966

In 1961, CORE's National Action Council (NAC) realized a need for stronger leadership and more effective administration within the organization. To meet this need the NAC created the position of national director and hired James L. Farmer. Farmer served in this post until 1966.

The national director's duties included supervision and coordination of the staff and their activities, assistance in formulating CORE policies, initiation of CORE projects, and leadership of the national organization and its affiliates.

The National Director's File, 1942-1966, contains primarily subject files for the years 1959 to 1964. The files are principally those created and maintained by National Director James L. Farmer.

For a number of years CORE operated with a small, frequently changing clerical staff, resulting in filing practices that are often inconsistent. For other papers of Farmer see files 2:14 and 3:44-45.

The files in this series are arranged alphabetically by subject, name of organization, or name of individual. A general file for each letter of the alphabet precedes subject files for the same letter of the alphabet(ie., "A" precedes "Africa"). Within the files items are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day; undated material is placed after all dated material. In the case of correspondence, the carbon copy replies were placed in front of the incoming letters, as originally filed. Frequently a group of letters was covered by one carbon copy reply. These items may appear on the microfilm to be out of sequence; this is not the case.

The National Director's File contains various types of materials such as correspondence, both incoming and outgoing, and mimeographed and printed materials consisting of press releases, reports, memoranda, minutes, financial statements, pamphlets, leaflets, broadsides, reprints, serials, and newspaper clippings.

A number of files contain correspondence and mimeographed material relating to James Farmer's participation as a member and/or advisor to groups such as the American Civil Liberties Union, the Americans for Democratic Action, the Association of Fair Housing Committees, the American Freedom Resistance Fund, the Boy's Athletic League, and the National Committee for Sane Nuclear Policy.

Other correspondence and mimeographed material relates to Farmer's and CORE's involvement with black organizations such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, the Council of Federated Organizations, the National Urban League, and the American Negro Leadership Conference on Africa.

Farmer's correspondence with the field staff and CORE affiliates details CORE projects such as the Freedom Rides, the Freedom Highways campaign, the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party, and the Voter Registration Project.

Other correspondence includes letters concerning Farmer's extensive speaking tours, informing CORE of discriminatory incidents, and seeking or acknowledging contributions.

Mimeographed and printed material includes National Action Council reports, minutes, and memoranda; reports and minutes from CORE conventions; inter-office memoranda concerning staff functions and CORE activities; and newspaper clippings and magazine articles detailing CORE activities.

Richard Haley's file (1:42) was created when he was assistant to the national director and associate national director. The file consists primarily of correspondence and memoranda concerning staff functions, complaints of discrimination, the activities of CORE affiliates, and CORE projects such as the boycott of the Sealtest Company, Operation Freedom, and the desegregation of public schools (see also Series 2 and file 5:250).

The correspondence and memoranda of Gordon Carey (1:14), created when he was field director, concerns affiliation and activities of CORE chapters and the hiring of CORE staff members (see also files 2:5 and 5:243).

As CORE's activities expanded in the early 1960s, added personnel was needed in the national office. In 1962, Richard Haley was named assistant to the national director.

He assumed the management of the CORE office, freeing Farmer to better coordinate CORE activities and to devote more time to projects and public speaking. The assistant to the national director made the day-to-day decisions governing staff functions and placement, programming, and fund allocations. He represented the organization whenever the national director was absent from the office.

In the fall of 1963, Gordon R. Carey became assistant to the national director, and Haley became associate national director. The two positions had similar responsibilities. In 1964, Richard Haley resigned as associate national director and was replaced by George Wiley. Gordon R. Carey resigned in 1964.

The Assistant to the National Director's File, 1942 - 1965, contains primarily subject files for the years 1962 to 1964. The files are principally those created and maintained by Richard Haley (see also files 1:42 and 5:250).

The files are arranged alphabetically by subject, name of organization, or name of individual. A general file for each letter of the alphabet precedes subject files for the same letter of the alphabet (ie., "A" precedes "American Friends Service Committee"). Within each file items are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day; undated material is placed after all dated material. In the case of correspondence, the carbon copy replies were placed in front of the incoming letters, as originally filed. Frequently a group of letters was covered by one carbon copy reply. These items may appear on the microfilm to be out of sequence ; this is not the case.

The Assistant to the National Director's File contains various types of materials such as correspondence, both incoming and outgoing, and mimeographed and printed materials consisting of minutes, memoranda, reports, financial statements, press releases, form letters, receipts, pamphlets, leaflets, newspaper clippings, serials, newsletters, request forms, and membership lists.

Richard Haley's files consist primarily of correspondence which includes letters seeking or acknowledging contributions, concerning the activities of CORE affiliates, concerning speaking engagements, asking for information about CORE, and criticizing CORE projects or suggesting future projects. Correspondence, reports, and memoranda concern CORE projects such as Operation Freedom, which aided dispossessed black sharecroppers in Tennessee, and Medical Aid to Mississippi, a COFO project. The activities of CORE affiliates at Philadelphia; Greensboro, North Carolina; and Valleyview, Ohio are detailed by correspondence, reports, and newspaper clippings.

Gordon R. Carey's file (2:5) relates to his activities as field director and assistant to the national director. The file consists primarily of correspondence and memoranda concerning the activities of CORE affiliates and the functioning of CORE's field staff (see also files 1:42 and 5:250).

Series 2 includes material belonging to departmental assistants of the Community Relations Department, filed under the names of Robert B. Gore (2:18), William H. Larkins (2:27), Mary N. Hernandez (2:22), and Val Coleman (2:6). These files consist primarily of correspondence, including requests for public speakers, for the film, "Freedom Ride," and the CORE produced record album, "Jazz Salute to Freedom," and for promotional materials such as lapel buttons, posters, books, and pamphlets. Other correspondence concerns fund raising projects of CORE and its affiliates (see also Series 5).

File 2:14 contains primarily James Farmer's correspondence and memoranda concerning speaking engagements, contributions, CORE projects, and staff salaries and functions (see also Series 1 and files 3:44-45).

SERIES 3 EXECUTIVE SECRETARY'S FILE, 1941 - 1962

At CORE's 1945 convention a number of changes were made in CORE's organizational structure, including creation of the position of executive secretary. George M. Houser, one of CORE's founders, was named to the post. Houser, on the staff of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, was permitted by FOR to devote time to the unsalaried job of executive secretary.

The executive secretary edited the CORE-lator, gave speeches to promote new CORE chapters, and guided the activities of existing affiliates. Houser's concepts of pacifism and reconciliation influenced CORE's policies and activities while he was executive secretary and after his resignation in 1954. James R. Robinson was executive secretary from 1954 until the position was abolished in 1961.

The Executive Secretary's File, 1941-1962, consists primarily of files concerning CORE affiliates for the years 1945 to 1955. The files are principally those created and maintained by George M. Houser.

The files are arranged alphabetically by subject, name of individual, name of affiliate (ie., "Washington Interracial Workshop"), or location of affiliate (ie., "Cleveland, Ohio"). Unlike Series 1 and 2 there are no general alphabetical files. Within the files items are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day; undated material is placed at the end of all dated material. In the case of correspondence in files prior to 1955, the carbon copy replies were placed behind the incoming letter, as originally filed. In the case of correspondence in files after 1955, the carbon copy replies were placed in front of the incoming letter, as originally filed. In a few instances a group of letters was covered by a carbon copy reply. These items may appear on the microfilm to be out of sequence; this is not the case.

The Executive Secretary's File contains various types of materials such as correspondence, incoming and outgoing, and mimeographed and printed material consisting of reports, minutes, memoranda, financial statements, invoices, receipts, press releases, questionaires, newsletters, programs, leaflets, pamphlets, songsheets, reprints, serials, and newspaper clippings.

George M. Houser's correspondence includes letters relating to CORE's Advisory Committee, requesting literature or information about CORE, requesting affiliation with CORE, and detailing the activities of CORE affiliates. Correspondence concerns communist influence in affiliates, and files 2:82-84 concern Field Representative Manuel Talley's conflict with CORE. Other correspondence concerns CORE's anti-Jim Crow protests such as those against the United States military, the Pennsylvania Railroad, the YMCA, and Sholl's Cafeteria.

Files concerning CORE affiliates contain correspondence, reports, press releases, leaflets, pamphlets, newspaper clippings, affiliation forms, and constitutions detailing the history, organization, and activities of the affiliates. These files include publications such as St. Louis CORE's Up-To-Date (3:87) and Washington Interracial Workshop's Shop Talk, which provide information on the affiliates' activities. File 3:12, Chicago CORE, contains material relating to the formation and early history of CORE.

Files 3:23-32 consist of correspondence, reports, minutes, and financial statements concerning CORE's annual conventions for the years 1944 to 1953 (see also files 1:23, 2:9, and 4:1).

File 3:5 contains correspondence of Billie C. Ames, group coordinator in 1954 and 1955, concerning the development of new CORE groups, guidance of affiliates, and organization of CORE workshops and meetings.

James Robinson's correspondence (3:71) relates to his term as executive secretary and concerns staff hiring, CORE activities and projected plans, and contributions.

Files 3:43-45 consist primarily of James Farmer's correspondence concerning his speaking engagements, CORE policies and projects, and his appointment as national director (see also Series 1 and file 2:14).

SERIES 4 NATIONAL ACTION COUNCIL, 1944 - 1965

The National Action Council (NAC) is the major policy-making body of CORE. The NAC met semiannually and consisted of the national director, the CORE-lator editor, elected officers, and selected members of the affiliates. The Steering Committee was drawn from members of the NAC. It met monthly to deal with immediate issues confronting CORE.

The National Action Council was created in 1962 to replace the National Council and the National Action Committee. The National Council, established in 1945, made policy decisions and accepted new affiliated chapters. The National Action Committee, created in 1956, met several times yearly to decide matters of policy and personnel, and to initiate CORE projects.

The National Action Council, 1944-1965, records consist of subject files arranged alphabetically. Items within the files are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day; undated material is placed at the end of all dated material. In the case of correspondence, the carbon copy replies were placed in front of the incoming letters, as originally filed.

The files contain correspondence, both incoming and outgoing, and mimeographed and printed material including constitutions, minutes, memoranda, reports, agenda, press releases, financial statements, lists of delegates, reprints, and newspaper clippings.

The correspondence (4:2) concerns plans for CORE conventions and NAC meetings, the activities of affiliates, and the appointment of NAC members. File 4:7 contains correspondence with the National Advisory Committee reporting CORE activities and soliciting financial or other support.

The conventions and constitutions file (4:1), 1948 to 1965, contains materials from the annual conventions such as minutes, agenda, constitutions and by-laws, staff reports, affiliates' activity reports, lists of delegates, and press releases (see also files 1:21, 23; 2:9; and 3:23-32).

Agenda (4:4), 1958-1965, and minutes (4:5), 1944-1965, relate to meetings of the National Executive Committee, the National Council, the National Action Committee, and the National Action Council and concern CORE projects, organization, and finances.

Memoranda (4:3) concern CORE projects, organization, constitutional changes, staff functions, chapter affiliations, political activities, and finances.

CORE's activities and policies are detailed in reports presented to the NAC (4:8), by the executive secretary, the community relations director, the membership director, the program director, and field secretaries.

SERIES 5 DEPARTMENTS AND RELATED ORGANIZATIONS, 1946 - 1970

Series 5 is divided into five sections including Community Relations Department, Organization Department, Program Department, CORE Southern Education Project, and CORE Scholarship, Education, and Defense Fund. The files of the Community Relations Department, Organization Department, and Program Department are further divided into subsections (ie., "Finances"). The inclusive file/frame numbers for each subsection are listed in the descriptions of the sections. Descriptions and reel lists for each of the sections follow.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS DEPARTMENT, 1946 - 1970

The Community Relations Department was created in October 1959 with Marvin Rich as its director. The department handled public relations and fund-raising activities such as press releases, associate membership drives, and promotional materials. Prior to 1959 fund raising had been conducted by James R. Robinson and Lula Farmer, and public relations activities were not centralized. Marvin Rich resigned in 1965.

The Community Relations Department, 1946 - 1970, consists primarily of subject files for the years 1960 to 1964. The files are arranged in eight sections:

Finances, 1948 - 1965
Legal Matters, 1956 - 1966
Local Chapters, 1946 - 1966
National Projects, 1947 - 1965
Other Organizations, 1956 - 1965
Publicity and Fund Raising, 1948 - 1970
Regional Offices, 1959 - 1967
Miscellany, 1957 - 1966

The files (except for 5:8 and 5:9) are arranged alphabetically under these eight sections by subject, name of individual, name of organization, or geographic location. Items within each file are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day; undated material is placed at the end of all dated material. In the case of correspondence, the carbon copy replies were generally placed in front of the incoming letters, as originally filed. Frequently a group of letters was covered by one carbon copy reply. These items may appear on the microfilm to be out of sequence; this is not the case.

Finances, 1948 - 1965 (5:1-2)

The Finances files of the Community Relations Department include financial records, 1954 to 1965 (5:1), and financial reports, 1948 to 1965 (5:2). The financial records include yearly audits, financial reports prepared by the staff for CORE executives and the NAC, treasurer's reports, budgets, expense accounts, and incoming and outgoing correspondence. The material concerns such things as holiday card sales, income from the affiliates, and costs and income for the Freedom Ride.

Legal Matters, 1956 - 1966 (5:3-8)

The Legal Matters files, although small in size, contain significant material, including incoming and outgoing correspondence, reports, affidavits, and legal documents relating to CORE's activities in Louisiana, Mississippi, New York, and South Carolina. File 5:3 contains testimony and press releases of the Committee of Inquiry into the Administration of Justice in the Freedom Struggle, sponsored by CORE in May 1962 and chaired by Eleanor Roosevelt. This file includes letters addressed to Mrs. Roosevelt by executives of the news media defending their role in reporting the Civil Rights movement (see also file 5:474).

Local Chapters, 1946 - 1966 (5:9-108)

The Local Chapters files are the largest section of materials in the Community Relations Department files. The files are arranged alphabetically first by state and then by city, county, affiliate name, or subject.

The files for each state vary in size and types of materials they contain. The files consist of incoming and outgoing correspondence, field reports, reports from affiliates, legal documents, constitutions, affiliation applications, membership lists, press releases, form letters, newsletters, songsheets, newspaper clippings, and miscellaneous chapter publications.

The material within the local chapter files concerns the formation, organizational structure, internal problems, and activities of CORE affiliates. CORE projects detailed by the files include the Freedom Ride; Operation Freedom; Florida, Louisiana, and Mississippi Voter Registration Projects; and picketing of Woolworth, Walgreen, S.H. Kress, McCrory, and Kresge stores, as well as Schine Theaters and various airlines. File 5:45 contains personal accounts of police harassment of blacks in Plaquemine, Louisiana. File 5:58 contains accounts of the numerous church burnings in Mississippi during 1964.

The local chapters files contain various newsletters and publications of CORE affiliates such as Los Angeles' From the Picket Line, Philadelphia's Coreporter, and Columbus' CORE spondent. These newsletters record chapter activities and offer insight into the number and variety of CORE affiliates' publications.

Of special significance is file 5:59, Mississippi, Jackson, which contains information on the disappearance and murder of Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman, and James Chaney, who were civil rights workers killed near Philadelphia, Mississippi in July 1964. The material consists of a transcript of information gathered and interviews conducted by David Welsh, a Detroit newspaperman, who investigated the disappearance of the three men.

The Local Chapters files of the Community Relations Department are closely related to the Local Chapters files of the Organization Department (5:310-435).

National Projects, 1947 - 1965 (5:109-137)

The National Projects files are arranged alphabetically by subject; material within the files is arranged chronologically by year, month, and day.

CORE activities detailed by the project files include boycotts of the Sealtest Company and Mississippi products, demonstrations at the 1964 Republican National Convention and the 1964 New York World's Fair, Voter Registration Projects, and Freedom Highways. Files 5:116-119 concern the organization, implementation, and results of the Freedom Ride in 1961. File 5:126 concerns CORE's participation in COFO administered projects such as community centers, Freedom Libraries, Freedom Schools, and Voter Registration Projects.

For projects concerned with particular states it is suggested that the researcher check the local chapter files for those states. The National Projects files of the Community Relations Department are related to the National Office Projects files of the Organization Department (5:436-474).

Other Organizations, 1956 - 1965 (5:138-171)

Other Organizations files are arranged alphabetically by name of organization; items within each file are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day.

Most of the organizations represented by the files were supportive of CORE, both with direct input in CORE activities and with funds. Material within the files relates to contributions, invitations to CORE staff to speak or take part in programs, and mutual activities of CORE and the other organization.

Several of these organizations are represented by files in other series.

Publicity and Fund Raising, 1948 - 1970 (5:172-221)

The Publicity and Fund Raising files are arranged alphabetically by subject; items within each file are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day.

The Publicity and Fund Raising files contain incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, financial statements, mailing and contact lists, fund appeal letters, press releases, miscellaneous publications, literature order forms, invoices, and songsheets.

The files concern CORE fund-raising projects such as associate membership drives, art shows, theater performances, and tours by entertainers such as James Baldwin, Dick Gregory, and Mahalia Jackson.

Files 5:193, 194 contain CORE press releases and press statements by James Farmer for the years 1960 - 1964.

A number of files concern the publication and sale of CORE printed material such as books, pamphlets, and articles, as well as record albums, lapel buttons, and bumper stickers.

Regional Offices, 1959 - 1967 (5:222-224)

Regional Offices files consist of files for the Northeastern, Southeastern, , Southern, and Western CORE regional offices. Items within the files are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day.

The files contain incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, general reports, press releases, field reports, financial statements, affidavits, pamphlets, and newspaper clippings.

The Regional Offices files represent material sent by the regional offices to national headquarters and concerns conferences, workshops, regional personnel, the activities of local chapters, and CORE projects such as employment, transportation, housing, and voter registration (see also file 5:309 for material on the Western Regional Office).

The miscellany files are arranged alphabetically by subject or name of individual; material within each file is arranged chronologically by year, month, and day.

The files contain incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, reports, financial statements, press releases, job resumes, application forms, leaflets, pamphlets, reprints, and newspaper clippings.

Of importance in these files is the correspondence and memoranda of Marvin Rich, Community Relations Department director (5:234, 240) and William H. Larkins, departmental assistant (5:235). The correspondence and memoranda concerns fund-raising activities, the Freedom Ride, Freedom Highways, staff functions and salaries, CORE memberships, CORE conventions, CORE's finances, and speaking engagements (see also file 4:2 for Marvin Rich).

ORGANIZATION DEPARTMENT, 1947 - 1968

In January 1962 the Field Department, overwhelmed by growing numbers of CORE staff and affiliates, was divided to form the Organization and Program Departments. James T. McCain, a CORE field worker since 1957, was appointed director of the Organization Department, with Fredricka Teer as his assistant. The Organization Department supervised field staff, serviced the affiliates with staff assistance and literature, and handled applications and assignments for CORE projects. James T. McCain resigned in 1965 and was replaced by Herbert Callender.

The Organization Department, 1947 - 1968, files consist primarily of local chapter files for the years 1960 to 1964. The files are arranged under the sections:

Correspondence of Individuals, 1957-1966
Correspondence by Subject, 1954-1965
Local Chapters, 1954-1968
National Office Projects, 1947-1965.

The files are arranged alphabetically under these headings by subject, name of individual, or geographic location. Items within each file are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day; undated material is placed at the end of all dated material. In the case of correspondence, the carbon copy replies were generally placed in front of the incoming letters, as originally filed. Frequently a group of letters was covered by one carbon copy reply. These items may appear on the microfilm to be out of sequence; this is not the case.

The Correspondence of Individuals files are arranged alphabetically by surname; material within the files is arranged chronologically by year, month, and day.

The files consist of incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, general reports, field reports, expense accounts, job resumes, application forms, pamphlets, leaflets, broadsides, press releases, reprints, newsletters, schedules, and newspaper cilppings.

The Correspondence of Individuals files contain materials from thirty-one individuals who were field secretaries or task force workers. The correspondence and field reports are significant in their detailing of the formation, affiliation, orginizational structure, and problems of local chapters (see also local chapter files 5:9-108 and 5:310-435).

The Correspondence by Subject files are arranged alphabetically by subject; materials within each file are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day.

The files contain incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, depositions, form letters, reports, minutes, affiliate constitutions, petitions, invoices, press releases, reprints, newsletters, pamphlets, leaflets, and newspaper clippings.

A number of the files relate to the activities of New York City CORE groups, such as CORE's protests against segregated schools, housing, and employment in breweries.

Files 5:293, 295, 296, and 297 contain correspondence, memoranda, and reports concerning the Organization Department and CORE's national headquarters and relates to such matters as staff functions, affiliates' activities, voting at conventions, the affiliation of new chapters, and CORE finances.

File 5:294 contains correspondence and field reports of task force workers and field secretaries which relate to the Correspondence of Individuals files (5:243-274).

Local Chapters, 1954 - 1968 (5:310-435)

The Local Chapters files are the largest section of materials in the Organization Department files. The files are arranged alphabetically first by state and then by general file, city, county, or affiliate name. Material within each file is arranged chronologically by year, month, and day.

The Local Chapters files consist of incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, field reports, affiliation applications, affiliate constitutions, affiliate reporting forms, financial statements, minutes of meetings, contact lists, membership lists, press releases, reprints, leaflets, pamphlets, broadsides, and newspaper clippings.

The material concerns the formation, affiliation, organizational structure, internal problems, and projects of the local chapters. Some of the most extensive files concern New York, New York; North Carolina; and South Carolina.

These local chapter files relate closely to the Local Chapters section of the Community Relations Department files (5:9-108).

The National Office Projects files are arranged alphabetically by subject; items within the files are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day.

The files contain incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, general reports, financial statements, field reports, affidavits, court documents, application forms for Freedom Riders, discrimination test forms, employment statistics, press releases, reprints, leaflets, and newspaper clippings.

Two of the more important groups of files in this section concern the Freedom Rides in 1961 and the Task Force projects of 1964. The Freedom Rides files (5:440-458) include applications for Freedom Riders; lists of Freedom Riders; itinerary of the Freedom Rides; material concerning trials, bonds, and appeals; and correspondence with Freedom Riders. The Task Force files (5:460-473) include applications for field workers, correspondence, anf field reports which primarily concern the Louisiana Voter Education Project and COFO projects in Mississippi.

The Journey of Reconciliation file (5:459) contains correspondence, press releases, and clippings concerning this 1947 CORE project testing interstate travel in the upper South. The material relates primarily to the arrest, trials, and jail terms of four members of the project who were arrested at Chapel Hill, North Carolina in April 1947.

File 5:474 contains a transcript of the proceedings of the Commission of Inquiry into the Administration of Justice in the Freedom Struggle. These hearings were held in Washington, D. C., on May 25-26, 1962 under the chairmanship of Eleanor Roosevelt (see also file 5:3).

The National Office Projects files directly relate to the National Project files of the Community Relations Department (5:109-137).

PROGRAM DEPARTMENT, 1953 - 1965

The Program Department was created in 1962 when the Field Department was divided to form the Program and Organization Departments. Gordon Carey was appointed director of the department with Norman Hill as his assistant.

The Program Department directed staff training and coordinated special projects. It was in charge of workshops and conferences and provided assistance and information to the affiliates concerning CORE projects.

In the fall of 1963, Gordon Carey became assistant to the national director, and Norman Hill became director of the Program Department. Hill resigned in 1964

The Program Department files consist primarily of subject files for the years 1962 to 1964. The files are arranged under the sections of Area Conferences (5:475-491), Employment (5:492-493), Freedom Highways (5:494), Freedom Rides (5:495-496), Interstate Commerce Commission Project (5:497), Legal Matters (5:498), Local Chapters (5:499), Other Organizations (5:500-514), Projects (5:515-519), and Miscellany (5:520-522). The files are arranged alphabetically under these headings by subject, name of organization, or state. Items within the files are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day; undated items are placed at the end of all dated material. In the case of correspondence, the carbon copy replies were placed in front of the incoming letter, as originally filed. Frequently a group of letters was covered by one carbon copy reply. These items may appear on the microfilm to be out of sequence; this is not the case.

The Program Department files contain incoming and outgoing correspondence, memoranda, general reports, minutes, field reports, court documents, agenda, press releases, pamphlets, leaflets, broadsides, and newspaper clippings.

The Area Conferences files (5:475-489) contain material concerned with the planning of workshops or meetings to train task force workers or members of affiliate groups in the principles of nonviolent protest or to prepare them for specific CORE projects.

The Freedom Highways, Route #40 Freedom Ride, and the Interstate Commerce Commission Project files (5:494, 495, 496, and 497) are concerned primarily with CORE's testing for discrimination in interstate travel facilities. Additional material concerns CORE projects such as minority hiring in New York City hotels (5:492) and the CORE demonstrations at the 1964 New York World's Fair (5:518).

Other Organizations files (5:500-514) primarily concern CORE's participation in the activities of the groups represented by the files.

The Program Department files are related to the files of the Community Relations and Organization Departments.

CORE SOUTHERN EDUCATION PROJECT, 1962 - 1965

The CORE Southern Education Project began as the CORE Books for Mississippi project with Benjamin A. Brown as chairman. In 1963, it became an autonomous project within CORE, coordinating its work with other departments. The project collected money and supplies such as books, cameras, typewriters, and mimeograph machines for CORE-COFO community centers and CORE field offices.

The CORE Southern Education Project files consist almost entirely of correspondence. The files, arranged by subject, incoming and outgoing, contain correspondence, memoranda, reports, and press releases. These items are arranged chronologically by year, month, and day within the files; undated material is placed at the end of all dated material. In the case of correspondence, the carbon copy replies were placed in front of the incoming letters, as originally filed. Frequently a group of letters is covered by one carbon copy reply. These items may appear on the microfilm to be out of sequence; this is not the case.

The correspondence concerns fund-raising activities, acknowledging contributions, and solicitations for money or supplies directed toward publishers and business machine manufacturers.

CORE SCHOLARHSIP, EDUCATION, AND DEFENSE FUND, 1960 - 1965

The CORE Scholarship, Education, and Defense Fund (CORE-SEDF) was established in 1962 by philanthropist Andrew Norman. In 1965, Marvin Rich became executive director of CORE-SEDF. The fund served as a source of money for CORE's legal activities and voter registration projects. In 1966, CORE-SEDF broke with CORE becoming an independent organization headed by Rich and called the Scholarship, Education, and Defense Fund for Racial Equality.

The CORE Scholarship, Education, and Defense Fund file is primarily correspondence for the period 1960 to 1965. Material in the file is arranged chronologically by year, month, and day; undated material is placed after all dated material.

The correspondence relates to the formation and incorporation of the CORE-SEDF, the selection of its board of directors, contributions, and student financial aid.

Additional material in the file includes memoranda, minutes of the board of directors, agenda, press releases, financial statements, and lists of students seeking aid.

SERIES 6 PUBLICATIONS, 1946 - 1971

The Publications, 1946 - 1971, includes the CORE-lator, October 1947 to No. 112, May-June 1965, pamphlets, 1946 - 1965, and leaflets and flyers, 1952 - 1971.

The CORE-lator (6:1) is arranged in chronological order. There is a complete file from the first numbered issue, No. 57, March - April 1953 through No. 112, May - June 1965. There are eighteen unnumbered issues which precede No. 57. Early issues of the CORE-lator were published irregularly in mimeographed form; later issues were printed.

This microfilm copy of the CORE-lator is made up of copies obtained from The State Historical Society of Wisconsin, The Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Social Change, and the Schomberg Center for Research in Black Culture, New York Public Library.

The pamphlets (6:2-25) are arranged alphabetically by author's surname. Full bibliographic citations are provided in the reel list.

The leaflets and flyers (6:26) are arranged chronologically, with the majority being undated.

NOTE ON THE USE OF THE INDEX OF IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE

The papers of the Congress of Racial Equality are divided into five series which contain alphabetically arranged subject files. Each subject file listed in this guide has been assigned an identification number (ie., 1:27), referring to the series and file number. This designation also serves as a frame number on the microfilm. Note that each entry in the index is arranged sequentially by series and file, not necessarily by date. The reel list included in each series description and the Brief Reel List indicate what series and file/frame numbers are located on each reel. The reel and frame designations are used in the Index of Important Correspondence to indicate the location of the item indexed.

(1) date the letter was written
(2) use of "to" or "fr" to indicate the direction of the letter
(3) name of sender or recipient - abbreviations were used for CORE staff members and others whose names frequently appear
(4) location designation, ie. 1:27 (series 1: file/frame 27)
(5) abbreviations indicating whether the letter was written by an (asst) or secretary (secy)
(6) abbreviations indicating whether the letter contained enclosure(s) (encl, encls)
(7) "See" and "See Also" cross references were provided indicating that correspondence relating to an individual or organization may be found under another or additional index listings

Letters to and from personalities important to CORE and well-known historical figures were indexed. All letters of presidents and vice-presidents were indexed. The indexed correspondence details the historical development of CORE and its local chapters, the organizational structure of CORE, CORE projects, and CORE's relationship with individuals and other organizations.

Correspondence between CORE staff members and/or national officers was not indexed. These individuals may be listed in the index, but the correspondence represented in these entries concerns their activities as members of local chapters or other organizations.
